

Your mandate is to protect consumers....to ensure the greatest diversity in news coverage. By allowing large companies to own an even greater percentage of the various media outlets, you are limiting competition and discouraging diversity. So don't let the people down. Say no to the lobbyists and CEO's who are only interested in increasing their profits and who don't give a damn about maintaining a free and diverse media market.